

I am opposed to NPRM 10740. It seems that the current Part 97 rules deal with improper use of amateur radio equipment. As a broadcaster I find that the people involved in better sounding radio brings a Level of good engineering practices,expert use and a level of experimentation that is the Hallmark of the Amateur radio service,something we have not seen in years .

Nick Balsamo